ALLEGATIONS:

On 13 March 2011, at approximately 2014 hours, Sergeant Gary Williams, #1839 contacted the Independent Police Review Authority and registered this complaint with Intake Aide Denise Stuart on behalf of the Complainant [REDACTED]. It is alleged that on 13 March 2011, at approximately 2000 hours, in the vicinity of 6200 S. State, Officer Bruce Askew, # 9015:

1. struck Ms. [REDACTED] about the face resulting in his arrest for Simple Domestic Battery; and
2. kicked her on the back.

It is also alleged that on an unspecified date in February 2011, at the location of [REDACTED] St., Officer Askew;

3. choked her; and
4. pushed her.

INVESTIGATION¹:

In a statement to IPRA on 13 March 2011 Complainant [REDACTED] related that she and her boyfriend, Officer Askew, had a verbal disagreement over 300 dollars. Officer Askew was driving her to her aunt's house when he swung at her with his fist. Ms. [REDACTED] was able to block his first strike, but he immediately punched her again on the right side of her face in her eye area. They struggled and Ms. [REDACTED] asked to be let out of the car. Officer Askew slowed the car down, but did not stop. Ms. [REDACTED] opened the car door and tried to get a bag of clothes from inside the car. At this point, Officer Askew had his foot on the brake, but the car was not in park. As [REDACTED] exited the car, Officer Askew kicked her on her back, pushing her out of the car. Ms. [REDACTED] flagged down a passing marked police car for assistance. Ms. [REDACTED] refused medical attention, but was given an ice pack for her face. At the end of her statement Ms. [REDACTED] related that she and Officer Askew had another altercation on an unknown date in February during which he choked her and pushed her with his hand. (Att. 15, 16, 16, 17, 30)

In an Initiation Report dated 13 March 2011, Sergeant Gary Williams related that Officer Askew and Ms. [REDACTED] were traveling in his vehicle together at the location of the incident. Ms. [REDACTED] related that she and Officer Askew engaged in a verbal argument during which Officer Askew struck her in the face, arms and torso with a closed fist. Officer Askew pulled the car over and kicked her out of the car using his foot. Ms. [REDACTED] flagged down Beat 283A who then called Sergeant Williams. Sergeant Williams observed visible bruising and swelling around Ms. [REDACTED] right eye. Officer Askew was arrested for Domestic Battery. (Att. 5)

Department Reports document that Officers Glinsey, # 14245 Whitely, # 6061 and Parker, # 15032 spoke to Ms. [REDACTED] who related that she and Officer Askew got into a verbal altercation over money which led to Officer Askew hitting her about the face and arms with a closed fist. Ms. [REDACTED] related that she was able to block some of the punches, but was struck several times which caused the right upper side of her face to be bruised. Officer Askew stopped the vehicle and as she exited the car, Officer Askew kicked her. Ms. [REDACTED] flagged down Beat 283A. Officer Whitley notified dispatch. Ms. [REDACTED] sustained minor injuries and was treated by Ambulance 38. Officer Askew voluntarily transported himself to the 3rd District. It is documented that there are 10 past abuses and 1 past case report. It is also documented that the proper procedure notifications were completed.² (Att. 6, 7, 8)

OEMC transmissions recorded that Beat 283A reported he had a “handwaver” on 62nd and State. The female battery victim needed an ambulance. Beat 283A requested a papercar and supervisor from the 3rd District because the incident involved a Chicago Police Officer. Beat 320 and 334 were assigned the job. (Att. 27, 33)

There were no PODS in the vicinity of the incident. (Att. 14)

There was no ambulance report generated relative to Ms. [REDACTED] treatment at the scene. (Att. 31)

ET photographs appear to depict redness and bruising to the right side of her face between her eye and her ear. (Att. 32)

Court Records document that on 28 March 2011, Case 11DV7153001 against Officer Askew was dismissed. (Att. 28)

In a statement to IPRA on 25 October 2012, Witness Officer Beverly Glinsey related that she did not recall the specifics of her conversation with Ms. [REDACTED] Officer Glinsey recalled that she responded to a domestic incident during which Ms. [REDACTED] reported being battered by her boyfriend. Officer Glinsey related that the facts in the Department Reports were the facts relayed to her during the incident. Officer Glinsey did not recall observing injuries to Ms. [REDACTED] Officer Glinsey did not recall who called for an ambulance, but according to procedure an ambulance would be called if a victim was injured. Officer Glinsey did not recall the details of her conversation with Officer Askew or if he reported that he was injured.³ (Att. 48)

In a statement to IPRA on 9 October 2012, Witness Sergeant Gary Williams related that he was called to the scene by Beat 283A in regards to a domestic battery involving a police officer. Ms. [REDACTED] related that Officer Askew punched her in the face and kicked her out of the car. Officer Askew was not on the scene at the time Sergeant

² It is documented that Officer Tankson, # 18229 processed Officer Askew’s property in the 3rd District. Due to his limited role after the incident occurred, Officer Tankson was not interviewed relative to this investigation.

Williams arrived, but drove up soon after. Sergeant Williams did not recall speaking to Officer Askew at the scene. Everyone traveled back to the station. At the station, Sergeant Williams asked Ms. [REDACTED] for details regarding the incident. Ms. [REDACTED] related that she put her hands up to defend herself, but she never fought Officer Askew. Sergeant Williams recalled that Ms. [REDACTED] sustained minor scratches from hitting the ground. Sergeant Williams related that if Officer Askew had injuries, he would have been able to see them. (Att. 49)

In a statement to IPRA on 9 October 2012, Witness Officer William Whitley related that he was on patrol when he was flagged down by a female who was battered by her boyfriend who was a police officer. Ms. [REDACTED] related that they had a physical altercation in the car and she got out of the car and he drove away. Officer Whitley related that Ms. [REDACTED] was disheveled, but did not recall observing visible injury. Officer Whitley called for a supervisor and an ambulance. At some point, Officer Askew returned to the scene. An assisting unit arrived, but Officer Whitley could not identify the additional officers. Officer Whitley did not recall observing any injury to Officer Askew. The involved parties and the assisting units went to the 3rd District. Officer Whitley continued his patrol. (Att. 50)

In a statement to IPRA on 13 December 2012, Officer Askew related that at the time of the incident he and Ms. [REDACTED] resided together and had been in a relationship for approximately four to six years. On the date of the incident, Officer Askew picked Ms. [REDACTED] up from her aunt's house. He did not observe any injury to her face, but knew that she got into an altercation with a former boyfriend. During the ride they argued and Officer Askew told Ms. [REDACTED] that they did not have to live together anymore. Ms. [REDACTED] became hostile and violent, which was a recurring issue in the relationship. Ms. [REDACTED] punched him, poked him in the head, and slapped him multiple times. She hit him on the side of the head with an open beverage that spilled all over the car. Officer Askew defended himself and hit at her with an open hand to stop her from hitting him in the face. He made contact with her hands and her body in an attempt to keep her off of him. Her actions caused him to have difficulty driving, so he pulled the car over. At that time, she kicked him. She kicked at him hard enough to bend the key in the ignition. Officer Askew got out of the car, opened the passenger side door and took her out of the car. Ms. [REDACTED] flailed her arms and screamed that she was not getting out of the car. Officer Askew grabbed her and pulled her out of the car and sat her on the curb. Officer Askew got back into the car and pulled off. Officer Askew saw a squad car pull up to Ms. [REDACTED]. He waited approximately 100 to 200 feet away. He observed Ms. [REDACTED] get in the squad car and he turned his car around and pulled behind the squad car. The officer informed Officer Askew that he contacted the 3rd District. When the Sergeant arrived, he interviewed Officer Askew and Ms. [REDACTED]. Officer Askew sustained minor scratches from the incident, but no photographs were taken. They went to the 3rd District and Officer Askew was arrested for Domestic Battery. Officer Askew did not observe injury to Ms. [REDACTED] face, but they said that she sustained a bruise on her eye. The next time Officer Askew saw Ms. [REDACTED] was in court. The charges against Officer Askew were dismissed. Officer Askew denied hitting Ms. [REDACTED] in the face, but it was possible he made contact with her face while he swung his arms in defense. Officer Askew denied kicking Ms. [REDACTED] out of the car. Officer Askew did not recall having a physical altercation with Ms. [REDACTED] in February 2011, but related that Ms. [REDACTED] often became physically aggressive towards him, but she is physically incapable of hurting him due to their size differences. Officer Askew related that he had Ms. [REDACTED] arrested for Domestic Battery in the past.⁴ He denied choking and pushing Ms. [REDACTED] in February 2011. (Att. 37, 40, 41, 42, 43, 44, 51)

CONCLUSION:

The R/I recommends a finding of Not Sustained for Allegation #1 against Officer Bruce Askew that he struck Ms. [REDACTED] about the face resulting in his arrest for Domestic Battery. Ms. [REDACTED] related that during an argument in the car while Officer Askew was driving, he punched her about the face with a closed fist. The Department Members documented Ms. [REDACTED] version of the incident in their reports. The Department Members interviewed did not recall what Officer Askew related to them, nor is his conversation with the Department Members documented in Department Reports. Officer Askew related that during the argument Ms. [REDACTED] hit him repeatedly as he drove the car. Officer Askew explained that he hit at her with his arm and open hand in order to defend himself. Officer Askew did make contact with Ms. [REDACTED] as he was defending himself, but did not know if he struck her in the face. Officer Askew admitted that it was possible he caused a bruise to her face, but it was not his intention to hurt her and he did not want to get hurt himself. Officer Askew was arrested and charged with Domestic Battery, but the charges were dropped later the same month. There were no independent witnesses to the incident. Without additional information it is impossible to identify who was the aggressor. None of the Department Reports document Officer Askew's version of the incident. The fact that Ms. [REDACTED] sustained a bruise to her face does not prove that Officer Askew was the aggressor or that he intended to hit her in the face. As such, there is insufficient evidence to either prove or disprove this allegation.

The R/I recommends a finding of Not Sustained for Allegation # 2 against Officer Bruce Askew that he kicked Ms. [REDACTED] on the back. Ms. [REDACTED] related that Officer Askew kicked her on her back in order to get her out of the car. Officer Askew related that he did remove her from the car by walking around to the passenger side and pulling her out. He further related that he placed her gently on the curb. The Department Members interviewed related facts consistent with the Department Reports generated in relation to the incident. Although Ms. [REDACTED] reported to them that Officer Askew kicked her out of the car, none of the Department Members witnessed him kick her. There were no independent witnesses to the incident and Ms. [REDACTED] did not have visible injuries caused by the alleged kick. There is insufficient evidence to either prove or disprove this allegation and it should be classified as Not Sustained.

The R/I recommends a finding of Not Sustained for Allegation # 3-4 against Officer Bruce Askew that he choked and pushed Ms. [REDACTED] at an unspecified time in February 2011. There were no independent witnesses to the incident. Ms. [REDACTED] did not call the police or seek medical attention and there are no records documenting the incident. Officer Askew related that he did not recall this incident. There is insufficient evidence to either prove or disprove this allegation and it should be classified as Not Sustained.
